If you need a cure for the summertime blues, Arigon Starr will be dispensing medicine in the form of sensational songs and good-natured humor. Starr is a warm, witty entertainer who has brought laughter to audiences around the country. Her one-person play (Native Voices at the Autry's The Red Road) recently debuted in Los Angeles and she has appeared on television. Her three CDs are award-winning and her latest release features an "A" list of musical talent from Nashville and Hollywood. Arigon will be performing songs from her rich catalog and telling the stories behind them.

Arigon's CDs are available online at Amazon.com and CDBaby.com. Visit www.arigonstarr.com for more information.
